VETERANS BANNERS ARE COMING SOON

The Coldwater Legion is embarking on its second year of a project to honour our local Veterans by placing banners in participating store windows in town. Last year's program was well received, so we hope to continue to build on its success. Last year's banners will go up again, but there is room for many more. The banners will still be 20" wide X 36" long (see sample at right). We will require a photo scanned at 300 dpi (we can scan it for you), the name of your Veteran and who is honouring the Veteran. The banners will be managed and stored by the Legion for continuity sake. We will look forward to the cooperation of the store owners in the years to come. If you would like to honour a Veteran, please contact Wanda Beaudoin through Facebook Messenger or email: wanda.b@amtelecom.net. Or by phone at (705) 686-3941. The cost will be $100.00, with net proceeds going to The Poppy Fund. Payment can be made to the above email.

BUSY MONTH AT THE BRANCH

It's been a busy month of August at the branch, beginning with Steampunk (we were 'Mexico' as part of the Around the World theme), then music with Megan & The Misfits, and our Newfoundland Day featuring the Caribou Band. Thank you to all our volunteers – like Cheryll above – who make these things happen over and over again!

FROM THE BRANCH PRESIDENT

Hello comrades.

HATS OFF to our very own Ladies' Auxiliary!!! The ladies stepped up Saturday August 6th and ran the canteen during Steampunk. In my opinion, it was a HUGE success. The clubroom was filled, and everyone enjoyed the food. I thought I was getting very special treatment by being served my meal at my table, until I noticed that everyone was being served. It was a glorious short-lived moment for me.

THANK YOU, Anne McArthur, Michele Russell, Gaëtanne Robinson, Dianne Sauvé, Yvonne Sauvé, Debbie Southorn, Brenda Yule, and Tori Vivian.

On Monday August 15th, Comrade Norm Marion and I attended the interment of Tom Thomson. It was at the Coldwater cemetery. Comrade Reverend Frank Beasley of the Elmvale branch presided over the ceremony.

On Thursday August 18th, branch historian, Normand Marion gave a talk at the Coldwater Canadiana Museum. The topic was Coldwater area men and women who served in the Great War, and the Second World War. It was very informative. Normand was able to keep the attendees interested, and by no surprise, was able to answer all questions from the audience.

Friday August 12th, and 19th, Carol Baird, Gill Baird and Frank Lauzon served up a fantastic fish and chips dinner to all who ordered. This dynamic trio also served food on Saturday August 20th during Megan and the Misfits performance. THANK YOU, Carol, Gill, and Frank. Megan, and the Misfits' performance of old country classics really brought back memories. This young lady and her band of old guys are welcomed back anytime. Outstanding!!

Saturday August 27th our Branch hosted a Newfie afternoon. The Caribou Band was very entertaining. The Newfie fries that were prepared by our L.A. ladies went right to the hips! "Lord t'underin b'ys, dey were some good!! Well done Anne McArthur, Debbie Southorn, Yvonne Sauvé, and Donna Packer.

Thank you to the many branch volunteers who are stepping up to help us.

Mark your calendar for the next General Meeting to be held on September 28th. We will see if by starting at 7p.m., that perhaps we would have more attendees. Keep on smiling!

Yours in comradeship,
Wayne Tutt, Branch 270 President

FROM THE LADIES' AUXILIARY PRESIDENT

Summer has come to an end, but I'm sure we will continue to have some beautiful weather.

We have had a busy month of August. We had a Mexican themed canteen operation on August 10th. Thank you to Debbie Southorn, Brenda Yule, Gaëtanne Robinson, Michele Russell and Dianne Sauve for prepping and cooking the food. We would also give a thank you to everyone who came out and helped by purchasing the food. It was a very busy day and we did make a profit.

On the 27th we had Newfie Day and provided, for purchase, Newfie Fries. Thank you to Yvonne Sauve, Debbie Southorn and Donna Packer for helping with this event. The music was great and if you were brave enough you could kiss the cod and drink Screech.

We will be hosting a Fall Fair Breakfast on Saturday September 24th, 2022 for the price of $10

Thank you to Jane Lauder who continues to organize and works hard at catering events.

The L.A. Provincial Convention is September 11th -13th. Michele Russell, Brenda Yule, and I look forward to attending this event and representing Branch 270 Coldwater.

The Branch District Convention is from September 30th to Oct 2nd. We will be needing help with this and we will be putting up sign up lists and calling for help.

We are also busy working on the Christmas Bazar. If you are interested in having a table at this Bazar, it is $15 for one table and $25 for two tables. Please contact Anne McArthur at 705-309-3755. The spaces are given to those with first paid basis and no tables will be held until payment received.

Don't forget that L.A. sports are starting up. If you are interested in attending and participating in any of the sports events, contact Michele Russell.

Our bank account has a working balance of $6, 992.40. Gaëtanne Robinson continues to keep our books in order and we thank her so much.

Please keep an eye on the L.A. board as you enter the branch for updates on the Branch Convention and the Christmas Bazar.

Yours in Comradeship,
Anne McArthur, Ladies' Auxiliary President

BRANCH GENERAL MEETINGS

The next General Meeting will be on Wednesday September 28, beginning at 7 p.m. Branch General Meetings take place on the fourth Wednesday of each month, from September to June, in the upstairs hall, starting at 7 p.m.

Judging results are starting to roll in and excitement is building. The authors are anxious to know the results. The new judges are amazed at the variety of topics and quality of writing they have been asked to judge. Each judge that has reported in is looking forward to next year, too. If you haven't heard the results before that, we will be able to announce the winners in the October Maple Leaf, so stay tuned. ENTERTAINMENT/WAYS & MEANS

Submitted by Comrade Carol Baird, Entertainment/Ways & Means Chair

Very busy month at the branch. Starting with the Ladies' Auxiliary doing the Mexican Tacos for Steampunk. The branch was busy. Many thanks to my husband Gill and Frank Lauzon for doing the fish and chips two Fridays in a row. Also to Cathy Larkins for doing the cash. Another great crowd when Megan and the Misfits performed at the branch. Many thanks to Marie Langley for taking the cover charge at the door for two events. Thanks again to Cathy Larkins and Wayne Tutt for doing the 50/50 draw. The Newfoundland day was a little slower than usual. The Caribou Band with Gary Carrol on the squeeze box was very entertaining. Thanks to the L.A. for running the canteen with the great Newfie fries. Thanks again to the volunteers Meredith Orr for the screech in, Carol Worgan and Lynn for doing the 50/50. September 3rd we have a very special event in our Clubroom. Ollie Strong is a local steel guitar player. He was the steel guitar player on the Tommy Hunter Show as well as the Ronnie Prophet Show. He was the first steel guitar player Gordon Lightfoot ever used. He is going to receive the Hank Smith Humanitarian award from the Canadian Country Music Association on September 17th in Calgary. We are having a surprise kickoff party for him with a band he performs with called the Side Winders. Everyone is welcome, starting at 2 p.m. A $5 cover charge for non-members applies. On the Fall Fair weekend we have one of our more popular bands in on Saturday the 24th: Stir it Up, from 2 to 6 p.m. Again $5 cover charge for non-members. We are hosting the District Fall Convention this year, so on Friday the 30th we have Even Steven from 7 to 11 p.m. in the clubroom. See you at the branch.

JOKE OF THE MONTH

Something to ponder on one of those long, cold winter nights. "SCENT": Is the "S" silent? Or is it the "C" that's silent?

SERVICE OFFICER REPORT

Submitted by Comrade Randy Rice, Branch Service Officer Comrades

This is the second part of a three part series taken from the 2021 census concerning our Veterans and the Canadian Armed Forces.

In this part we'll look at the status of women in the CAF and how their role reflects Canadian society.

Almost one-fifth of those serving in the Canadian military are women. Of the currently serving members counted through the census, nearly one in five (19.3%) were women. Compared with most other industries, the share of women in the military is relatively low. In 2021, according to the Labour Force Survey (LFS) women accounted for almost half (47.3%) of the employed labour force. Two sectors had less than one in five women among their employed labour force: construction (13.2%) and forestry, fishing, mining, quarrying, oil and gas (18.5%).

However, compared with other countries, the share of women in the CAF is relatively high. According to the Statistics of Women in the CAF, a publication by DND, 16.3% of currently serving members were women. This suggests that Canada exceeds the 15% target for 2028 set out by the United Nations for the share of women in the military. In the most recent Summary of the National Reports of NATO Member and Partner Nations, Canada ranks among the top five countries with the highest percentage of full-time military women in 2019, along with Hungary, Greece, the United States and Bulgaria. Interesting comparison.

The number of women serving in the military has been increasing over the years and continues to rise. The CAF is making a significant recruitment effort to attract female candidates, with the goal of having one in four members being a woman by 2026.

YOUTH EDUCATION REPORT

Submitted by Comrade Cheryl Barr, Youth Education Chair
September is here Comrades! Gaëtanne Robinson and I attended a District "E" Youth Education Seminar on August 28th at the Port McNicoll Legion Branch 545. We did get some great ideas from other branches on how they do their Youth Education programs. We are considering some of them for our own Youth Education program. At this time, we are getting our packages ready to take to the schools. We will be getting most of the paperwork done before the end of September and will be ready to receive the children Posters, Poems and Essays.

We also obtained a lot of great information on the Public Speaking side of Youth Education. We will be working on that by the end of November. Hope to see you at the Branch soon.

Comrade Brenda Yule, seen here cooking chili, was one of the many volunteers from the Ladies' Auxiliary and from the branch who helped with the Steampunk Day and other branch activities this summer. Thank you Brenda and all the volunteers!

BAR OFFICER

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS REPORT

Submitted by Comrade Rick Morse, Branch Sergeant-at-Arms

This is a call for Colour Party volunteers. When I first became a member of Branch 270 we had a good number of members who would participate as our Colour Party in the different events that the branch supported. Those numbers have severely declined over the past few years and the branch is asking for your renewed support in this area as it is important not only to the branch, but the surrounding communities that often come to us asking for our participation. Showing the Colours, and doing it right is never a bad thing. In asking for your support, the following criteria is paramount:

Be a Legion member, with full dress Legion uniform;

Be available to participate in Branch Services and community events as necessary;

Marching short to medium distances with Branch Colours at the carry;

Be available to participate in training, including but not limited to, drill at the halt with and without Colours, and marching.

The goal here is to increase the number of members the Colour Party can draw from and to expand the number of flags participating in our events.

If you are interested please contact me using one of the following: Cell – 705-914-0007;

Email – rpmorse@rogers.com; or Give your name, with your contact information, to a member of the Branch Executive.

The Battle of Britain is remembered each year on the third Sunday of September, making 18 September this year's date.

The branch will have a subdued wreath laying event at the cenotaph. Start time for this event will be 0900 hrs.

Anyone wishing to view the ceremony is more than welcome to attend.

Frank and Gill volunteered their time in our canteen in August to cook fish & chips on a couple of Fridays.

Thank you Frank and Gill!

BRANCH HISTORIAN REPORT

Submitted by Comrade Norm Marion, Branch Historian

I had the pleasure of giving a presentation on Coldwater's military history, at the Coldwater Canadiana Museum, on Aug 18. This was the last presentation of the museum's summer program, which saw various people discussing some aspects of local history.

Our Veterans Banner on main street program was quite successful last year, and we are beginning to take orders for more banners this year. If you know someone you would like to feature on a banner around Remembrance Day, please contact Comrade Wanda Beaudoin through Facebook Messenger or email: wanda.b@amtelecom.net. Or by phone at (705) 686-3941.

Also, we will soon be looking for submissions to the next volume of Ontario Command's Military Service Recognition Book (MSRB). Volume IX MSRB will be published this fall, and the production of a Volume X to be published fall of 2023 has just been confirmed. You can see an example of an MSRB submission featuring long-time Coldwater branch member Lawrence Shaw on this page. Again, if you know someone who served in the military and you think could be featured in a future MSRB, please contact me at (705) 686-3941, email norm.marion@amtelecom.net

WALTER LAWRENCE SHAW

Walter Lawrence Shaw was born in Matchedash Township near Coldwater, Ontario, on December 3, 1922, son of Fred and Maude (Bolyea) Shaw. He was the second of five children and the only boy. He lived on the family farm until he enrolled in the Canadian military under the National Resources Military Act on February 3, 1944. He joined as a gunner with the Royal Canadian Artillery (service number 161931), and served in Canada and England. He returned to Canada and was discharged on May 2, 1946. After his return to civilian life he worked as a welder with Canadian Pacific Railway, while still working with his wife the farm he bought from his parents. Lawrence retired from the railway as a foreman in 1983. He was a member of Royal Canadian Legion Branch 270 Coldwater for more than 25 years. He passed away on April 22, 2003.

We will remember him.

LEGION SUPPORTS MAJOR CANADIAN WAR MUSEUM INITIATIVE

Project will preserve stories from war Veterans and families

OTTAWA, 4 August 2022 – The Royal Canadian Legion looks forward to the ultimate completion of a major new artistic and historic project by The Canadian War Museum. “In Their Own Voices: Stories from Canadian Veterans and their Families” will document detailed memories and the post-war experiences of Canadian Veterans and their families.

The Legion and the Legion National Foundation are proud to individually support this ambitious and meaningful project.

“Once complete, it will not only help promote the Remembrance of our Veterans and their experiences, it will become a lasting chronicle of Canadian Veteran history for current and future generations,” says Bruce Julian, Dominion President.

The Canadian War Museum’s four-year project will create a multi-media online platform that captures and preserves the first-hand war and post-war experiences of soldiers from all eras. It will launch in 2024 and will be available for Remembrance Day and for the 80th anniversary of V-E Day in 2025.

As Canada’s national museum of military history, The Canadian War Museum is the ideal creator and content curator of information that provides a better understanding of the effects of conflict and service across families and generations.

Dr. Michael Petrou, Historian, Veterans Experience at the museum says they are “enormously grateful” for the Legion’s support to help enable this work. He plans to speak with hundreds of Veterans.

“The war doesn’t end in the minds of a lot of people who take part,” says Petrou. He describes how war continues to shape lives in both good and harmful ways. “What we really want to do is explore those ripples that continue in Veterans’ lives sometimes even decades after they take their uniforms off,” he describes. “The oral history is really the only way to do that.”

He is starting to see themes – like the significance of the camaraderie and bonds developed among those who have served, and how many Veterans miss those things. He is also learning more about how the war experience shapes Canada as a society. It’s a rich topic to explore Petrou explains. For example he says, “women had been involved in new roles during the Second World War and it changed their role in society.”

The final compilation of audio, video and still images will serve as a valuable resource for historians, journalists, photographers, and the public. The eventual online portal will also help educators and students. As a guardian of Remembrance, the Legion is eagerly anticipating the educational possibilities.

“What better way to keep these stories alive so that we can teach our children,” says Freeman Chute, Director, Poppy and Remembrance at the Legion’s national headquarters. “We are planning to incorporate some of these educational elements into our new Remembrance tools which we have created and updated over the years to assist our teachers,” he says.

The timing of this project is especially paramount since The Canadian War Museum indicates that out of the 1.1 million people who contributed, there are only 22,000 surviving Second World War Veterans.

Michael Petrou says it is also crucial that military families’ experiences be preserved. He is hearing stories from family members who are often directly affected in ways that no-one asks about. From children signing up to serve because their parent did, to experiencing years of trauma because of a loved one’s war experience. “I think that’s almost a bit of a hidden history that we’re hoping to reveal,” he says.

Canada’s most recent census reported that 33,420 Canadian Veterans were aged eighty-five or older, underscoring the importance of including as many Canadian Veterans from early conflicts, as soon as possible. Part of the Legion’s mission is to promote Remembrance, and this project is an integral part of fulfilling that pledge. The organization has committed $100,000, along with $25,000 from the Legion National Foundation to help support this major undertaking by The Canadian War Museum.
